Re: United States v. Jose Castro, S2 12 Cr. 863 (LAP)

Dear Chief Judge Preska:

The Government respectfully writes in connection with above-captioned matter to convey joint requests that the Court: (i) adjourn the October 10, 2013 pre-trial conference scheduled in this matter; (ii) set a motion schedule as set forth below; (iii) set a trial date in this matter for September 8, 2014; and (iv) exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act between October 10, 2013 and September 8, 2014.

As the Court is aware, the Superseding Indictment in this case, which was unsealed on December 18, 2012, charges 26 defendants with conspiring to distribute crack. Seven defendants who have not pleaded guilty remain pending before the Court: Jose Castro, Kevin Henderson, Calvin Thomas, Jamel Kennedy, Jermaine Nibbs, Alfonso Lee, and James Perkins.¹

The Government has conferred with defense counsel for these seven defendants and the parties jointly propose the following schedule:

- The Court adjourn the October 10, 2013 pre-trial conference.
 - Any pre-trial motions by defendant Kevin Henderson be filed by December 15, 2013, the Government's response due January 20, 2014, and any reply due February 3, 2014. (The deadlines for pre-trial motions by all other defendants has already past).

¹ Of the 26 defendants, 14 defendants have pleaded guilty and one additional defendant, Charles Williams, is scheduled to plead guilty. One defendant has been deemed not competent to stand trial at this time. Three defendants are fugitives.

- ² All parties have consented to this trial date. However, in the event that the number of trial defendants significantly decreases, the parties may at that later time respectfully request the Court set an earlier trial date, which would be subject, of course, to the Court's availability.
